DIRECTIONS FOR USE

USE RATES AND MIXING INSTRUCTIONS

Preparation of a Slurry Premix Prior to Addition to Spray Tank:
Add Climb at a rate of 2 fluid ounces per gallon of slurry water. The use of Climb will raise the pH of the slurry mixture and increase the solubility of the pesticide.

1. Use a slurry bucket to premix the products before adding to spray tank.
2. Add pesticide to the water first.
3. Add the prescribed amount of Climb to the mix second.
4. Mix thoroughly to solubilize the pesticide.
5. Add the slurry premix to the spray tank
6. Agitate the tank mix thoroughly and spray.

Direct Addition to Spray Tank:

Add Climb at a maximum rate of 16 fluid ounces per tank load; however, do not initially treat a water volume greater than 10% (v/v) of the total water volume to be used. The remaining volume of water is to be added to the spray tank afterwards. The use of Climb will raise the pH of the water in the spray tank and increase the solubility of the pesticide.

1. Fill the spray tank with 10% of the total water volume to be used.
2. Add pesticide to the water first.
3. Add the prescribed amount of Climb to the mix second.
4. Mix thoroughly to solubilize the pesticide.
5. Add the remaining volume of water along with any other tank mix pesticides.
6. Agitate the tank mix thoroughly and spray.

IMPORTANT: As applicable, always follow all closed system handling instructions and requirements that are specified on the pesticide product label.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Climb is an alkalinity agent formulated for use to increase and buffer the pH of the spray water. Certain crop protection chemicals, such as but not limited to sulfonylurea herbicides, are more soluble in alkaline solutions. For a more complete list, refer to the Wilbur-Ellis Spray Material Solubility Chart. The alkaline solution helps to increase the solubility of the pesticide.

NOT FOR AQUATIC USE.
